

POSTMASTER REPRESENTATIVE

Duties and responsibilities:

1. To advise, counsel and assist in the resolution of official concerns of Postmasters.
2. To mobilize the strength, prestige, status and effectiveness of NAPUS in furthering and protecting the interests of Postmasters.
3. Keep Postmasters informed of current areas of concern through training programs at conferences and conventions and articles in the Around the Cracker Barrel.
4. Members of this committee should be utilized to visit and advise Postmasters immediately upon learning of a problem. They will represent Postmasters at all levels in Adverse Actions.
5. Members of the National Committee on Postmaster Representation should be contacted for additional assistance.
6. Postmaster Representation is one of our most important and valuable functions of NAPUS – this is a field that truly proves that “Service to Postmasters” is our primary goal.
